

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

1. What is the #Youth4ClimateLive Series?

The #Youth4ClimateLive Series is hosted by the Italian Ministry for the Environment, Land and Sea, in collaboration with Connect4Climate - World Bank Group and the Office of the UN Secretary-General's Envoy on Youth, as part of the initiatives organized in the run-up to the 2021 pre-COP26 in Milan and COP26 in Glasgow. Each session brings together a diverse group of unstoppable youth at the forefront of creative climate action for intergenerational and interactive conversations with policy makers and experts. You can learn more about the series, watch previous episodes, and register for upcoming sessions at <https://youth4climate.live/>.

2. If I missed a previous episode, am I disqualified from submitting my entry?

Absolutely not! While you are still required to include an individual episode summary, you can watch any episodes you missed here: <https://youth4climate.live/>

3. Can I produce one general summary for all episodes?

While there is no limit to how many #SumItUp you can submit, in each entry there should be a clear distinction of the key takeaways from the episode you've selected. Each of our Y4C episodes looks at climate action through a different angle, whether it be nature-based solutions or youth action and, as such, each episode will have unique key takeaways!

4. Do you accept group submissions?

No, submissions should be submitted by one participant. We will be selecting one winner through audience voting following the end of all competition phases.

5. How is the contest judged?

All submissions will be displayed on the Reach Not Preach platform and open to audience voting at the end of all competition phases. Each individual can vote once. The winner will then be notified before the organizers proceed with any promotion or announcements.
